

Artist Agreement Form (updated January 26, 2014)

URBAN RANCH PROJECT (URP) is an "animal" advocacy and social and environmental activism arts venue based on Facebook. Its mission is to bring awareness to the interconnectedness of racism, sexism, ageism, speciesism, and other human-made hierarchical prejudices. Using the power of social media URP inspires change.

CONDITIONS

- Work that uses “animal” blood, skin, body parts, wool, feather, hair, animal-derived products, treats “animals” with disrespect and harms them in any way for its making, supports industries that hold “animals” in captivity, will not be considered.

- Artists presented must have FB accounts in order to be tagged in their featured works, as a show of their support of the project.

- Submitting work does not guarantee that it will be featured on URP. It is up to the discretion of the curator whose work will be featured.

- Featured work will remain on URP's archives on FB. Only through written email requests by the authors URP will remove the provided materials, within a reasonable period of time.

- Artists will not be paid a fee and will not be charged a fee for featuring their work.

- URP will not interfere with artists' ownership of the copyright to their featured work, but URP is not responsible for either FB or FB users' or <http://urbanranchproject.com/> viewers' handling of the submitted information and images. URP will use the materials submitted exclusively for the purposes presented in this agreement, including for promotional or grant-writing/ funding purposes. Any other possible future use by URP or its curator, will occur only after further email communication and permission from the artists.

- The artist is solely responsible for the copyright of the work and takes full legal and financial responsibility for any unforeseen copyrights issues related to the presentation of the work on URP. The artist is either the owner of the copyright for the use of all images, text, sound, video, and other submitted materials, or has full legal permission to use them from their original authors, and to have them featured on URBAN RANCH PROJECT at the links listed on top of the first page, for the purposes of this agreement.

The following “Permission Sentence” is needed for featuring your work – please copy the following sentence in your email response, when sending your materials:

“I have read the conditions in URP’s Artist Agreement Form (updated January 26, 2014) and I agree to all the terms listed in it.”

Responding to this email with the requested information and materials constitutes full agreement to the conditions listed in this agreement and is acceptable in lieu of original signature.
